Favorite Foods Awarded Better Business Bureau's 2010 Torch Award

The NH Better Business Bureau has named Favorite Foods the recipient of the 2010 Torch Award for Marketplace Ethics in the medium sized business category. The mission of the Better Business Bureau is to promote and foster the highest ethical relationships between businesses and the public through voluntary self-regulation, consumer and business education, and service excellence. In this spirit, the Council of Better Business Bureaus has established statewide awards program in order to gain public recognition for American businesses within each state and maintain a solid commitment to conducting their practices in an ethical manner. The awards, known as the Torch Award for Marketplace Ethics, recognizes outstanding American businesses that promote trust and an honorable marketplace for all Americans.

Chris Barstow, President of Favorite Foods was on hand to accept the award. In a statement released internally to Favorite Foods, Mr. Barstow praised the efforts and hard work of each employee and exclaimed, "Of all of the awards that we have won throughout the years, this is the one that means the most to me!"

He went on to say that, "It has always been of the upmost importance that our customers and vendors feel that we are conducting business with them in a fair and ethical manner. We strive to be business partners, not just 'doing business'."
