

POTATO POSSIBILITIES

Stealth Fries® Thin Regular Cut (S35)

Variety, creativity and innovation that your customers love

Our modest roots have never gotten in the way of our big ideas. Started as a small vegetable business in the heart of the Pacific Northwest, we've grown to global proportions, selling our products in more than 100 countries.

And while we're proud of our growth and our industry-leading work, we'll always remember that our success comes down to one thing — you. Customer happiness drives every decision we make. And every flavorful bite we produce.

You are our livelihood.

We've grown to be one of the largest, most innovative potato product producers in the world, but our customer-first approach is still firmly rooted in the Pacific Northwest's U.S. farms, where we started back in 1950.

And while inventiveness drives our products, it's you who drives our business. We know that it's our job to make your potato experiences exceptional, both in the kitchen and at the table.
